

Charles MacKinnon

Charles was born in 1955 and took his degree in Human Sciences at Oxford University in 1976. Following university, he joined CT Bowring as a reinsurance broker working in the Lloyds Insurance markets. During his period there he also worked for Guy Carpenter in New York and San Francisco.

In 1984 Charles went to INSEAD to study for an MBA, and subsequent to that joined Goldman Sachs in their London office in 1985.

While at Goldman Sachs, he helped build the private client services and his own team, becoming an executive director and managing in excess of $1 billion in worldwide assets for his clients.

In 2000 Charles was elected an advisory fellow of Pembroke College, Oxford where until recently, he was also chairman of the Investment Committee. Also in that year he gained a Postgraduate Diploma in Garden Design from the InChbald School of Design in London.

In 2003 he was one of the founding partners of Thurleigh Investment Managers LLP of which he is Chief Investment Officer.

In 2007 he was elected a Governor of Sutton's Hospital in Charterhouse, where he is Chairman of the Asset Allocation Committee.